VOLUME 14 ISSUE 11 NOVEMBER 2026

THE BROAD RUN BAPTIST BEACON

LOVE GOD, LOVE PEOPLE, LOVE LIFE

Our Purpose

The purpose of this Church shall be the advancement of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. It shall seek to attain this end through the public worship of God, the preaching of the Gospel, consistent Christian living by its members, personal evangelism, missionary endeavor, and the Christian education.

Our Beliefs

We believe in one God, the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit, three persons, but one God, whose name is Jehovah. We believe in the deity and the humanity of Jesus Christ, who is none other than God the Son manifest in the flesh, and in whom all the fullness of the Godhead dwells forever. We believe Jesus Christ is the one and only Head of the Church; that all believers are equally priests unto God; the ordination, while it recognizes position, bestows no power; that the local church is independent and sovereign. We believe that all men are sinners needing a Savior; that salvation is only, and altogether, through simple faith in Jesus Christ who died for our sins; faith always accompanied by works; need for repentance, and, that without such faith, there can be no salvation here or hereafter. We believe in unbroken conscious existence after death, determined by life before death; in the personal second coming of Christ to judge the world; in the resurrection of the body which, for those who die in the Lord, shall be like Christ's glorious body; in the eternal weal of the saved and the eternal woe of the lost.

Curiosity: An e-devotional on 1 Peter 1:12, NKJV from www.davidjeremiah.org

Provided by Dr. David Jeremiah

1 Peter 1:10-12 (nkjv)

10 Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, 11 searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. 12 To them it was revealed that, not to themselves, but to us they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which angels desire to look into.

There is an odd vehicle bouncing over the landscape of Mars. Its name was chosen from a nationwide student contest that attracted more than nine-thousand ideas. NASA's rover is called Curiosity. The Kansas student who suggested the name said, "Curiosity is an everlasting flame that burns in everyone's mind."[1]

Curiosity even burns in the minds of angels. Peter told us the angels long to "look into" the things we experience in salvation. The original Greek word means "to stoop down, bend over, and peer intently into something." It was also used for peering out a window to catch a glimpse of the sight below. How remarkable to ponder! We are privileged to experience something that intrigues the angels. According to Luke 15:7, they rejoice when any human being repents and turns to the Savior.

Knowing this should make us appreciate all the more the inheritance we have in Christ. What a privilege to enjoy blessings that make the curious angels sing!

Angels now are hovering round us… wondering at the love that crowned us.

1 John Chapter 3 17:18

But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?
My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

The BRBC shows love through deeds every day.

Below are some examples of how the BRBC has shown the love of God since January 2026.

- 2,884 food packages have been provided to children through the Jane Lew Elementary School Backpack Program.
- A Blessing Box is maintained for anyone in need.
- Monthly support has been provided to missionaries - Sarah McCloy and the Myers Family.
- Support has been provided to the Fisher Baptist Camp.
- Support was provided to the Kodiak Baptist Mission.

This is in addition to helping those in the community or church by providing support and help on a routine basis.

BROAD RUN
BAPTIST CHURCH

In December, the church will have elections. It is always good to refresh our memories about roles and responsibilities. The following information was copied from the Church's Constitution. Copies of the Church's Constitution are available on the desk outside the Church's Sanctuary or can be requested from the Church's office.

The Board of Deacons/Deaconesses

There shall be a board of six deacons and three deaconesses elected by the church and ordained by the church, one-third shall be elected each year to serve a term of three years. No member shall be eligible for re-election to the Board immediately following the expiration of a three-year term, but may be eligible for re-election after the expiration of one year following the completion of a term of office.

The Board shall choose annually a chairman, a secretary and shall meet regularly each month. Special meetings may be called by the chairman or the secretary, who shall notify the other members. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum.

The Board shall in every way assist the pastor in his work; with him consider all applicants for church membership and all requests for letters of dismissing; cooperate with him/her in providing the pulpit supply and the leaders of the prayer meeting in his/her absence; visit the members; care for the sick, needy and distressed members of the church, using such fellowship funds as may be needed. The Board shall conduct an annual evaluation with the Pastor to maintain a strong spiritual relationship between the Pastor and the Church.

The board shall promote Christian instruction and ministry to the church membership, provide for the Lord's Supper and aid in its administration; and make a written report at each annual meeting of the church on the matters in its charge.

The Board of Trustees

There shall be a Board of three trustees, one-third of whom shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. Consecutive terms shall be limited to two. The clerk and treasurer shall have the privilege of attending its meetings and shall be present when so requested by the board.

The Board shall choose annually a chairman and a secretary, and meetings may be called by the chairman or by the secretary, who shall notify the other members. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum.

The Board shall hold in trust all property belonging to the church and shall take all necessary measures for its protection, management and upkeep. It shall determine the use of the church building for all extra or secular purposes, but it shall have no power to buy, mortgage, lease or transfer any property without specific vote of the church authorizing such action. It shall designate the bank where the funds of the church shall be deposited. It shall, when so instructed by the church, secure their services of a caretaker at such salary as is authorized by the church and secure from him/her acceptable service. It shall perform such other duties as are imposed upon it by the church and the state.

It shall make written reports to the church at the annual meeting and at such other times as may be desired.

The Board of Christian Education

There shall be a Board of Christian education composed of six members, one-third of whom shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. Consecutive terms shall be limited to two.

The Board shall be organized promptly following the annual election. It shall select from its own membership a chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary. It shall meet monthly at a stated time. Special meetings may be called by the chairperson at any time and shall be called upon the request of the pastor. A quorum shall consist of four elected members. The secretary of the board shall notify the members of all meetings, enter accurate minutes of the meetings in a book to be kept for that purpose, have custody of and be responsible for all books, papers and documents pertaining to the affairs of the board, and surrender all records to the board when a new secretary is elected. The board shall prepare a report of the year's Christian education program, budget and activities for presentation at the annual meeting of the church.

The Board shall be responsible for the organization and administration of the entire educational program of the church. It shall be responsible for developing and interpreting to the constituency of the church the educational objectives or goals. It shall be responsible for studying the educational needs of the church and for making decisions concerning (1) time schedule, (2) educational use of housing and equipment, and (3) the elimination or addition of classes or organizations. It shall be responsible for discovering, enlisting, training and appointing all church educational workers. It shall be responsible for evaluating and supervising the curriculum of the educational program. It shall be responsible for coordinating and approving the out-reach programs of the groups and organizations under its jurisdiction, such as home-church, community relationship, and educational programs in cooperation with other churches are included in this responsibility. It shall be responsible for preparing and administering the education budget of the church, to include youth ministry.

The Board of Missions

There shall be a Board of missions composed of the vice-president of missions of the Baptist Women, the mission director of the Christian Education Board and one deacon/deaconess appointed by the deacon/deaconess board, and member at large.

The Board shall seek to increase missionary interest and giving by general promotion and special events, missionary speakers, missionary films, and projects to personalize missions. The board shall promote cooperation with other churches in the association and convention, in the furthering of missionary enterprise. It shall cooperate with the Board of Education in the school of missions and other educational projects.

The Board shall seek to correlate and encourage the missionary activity of the woman's society, the men's fellowship, the youth ministry and other organized groups in the church.
